2. After the beginning of the war in June 1950, travel was relatively easy for government officials on orders. However, civilian travel was limited by the number of railroad tickets put on sale, unless the civilian knew some one in authority. Between 15 and 20 November 1950, North Hamgyong and Chongjin officials made an unofficial announcement of their visit to the USSR. Up to July 1950, there were about 1,000 Soviet nationals, excluding military personnel, in Chongjin. The Soviet advisers, who were attached to factories and the various people's committees, left Chongjin at the end of July.

3. Locations of government offices in the Chongjin area are as follows:

North Hamgyong People's Committee Minju-ri Chongjin

North Hamgyong People's Committee Chungang-ni Chongjin
